CONCLUSION OF LAW

16. As a result of the criminal conduct identified in Section I herein, cause exists for the MREC to deny Hoskins' application for a real estate salesperson license pursuant to § 339.080.1, RSMo, which provides: "The commission may refuse to examine or issue a license to any person known by it to be guilty of any of the acts or practices specified in subsection 2 of section 339.100, . . . ."

17. As a result of the criminal conduct identified in Section I herein, cause exists for the MREC to deny Hoskins' application for a real estate salesperson license pursuant to the provisions of § 339.100.2(16), (18) and (19), RSMo, which state:

2. The commission may cause a complaint to be filed with the administrative hearing commission as provided by the provisions of chapter 621, RSMo, against any person or entity licensed under this chapter or any licensee who has failed to renew or has surrendered his or her individual or entity license for any one or any combination of the following acts:

(16) Committing any act which would otherwise be grounds for the commission to refuse to issue a license under section 339.040;

...

(18) Been finally adjudicated and found guilty, or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, in a criminal prosecution under the laws of this state or any other state or of the United States, for any offense reasonably related to the qualifications, functions or duties of any profession licensed or regulated under this chapter, for any offense an essential element of which is fraud, dishonesty or an act of violence, or for any offense involving moral turpitude, whether or not sentence is imposed;

(19) Any other conduct which constitutes untrustworthy, improper or fraudulent business dealings, demonstrates bad faith or incompetence, misconduct, or gross negligence[.]

18. Section 339.040.1, RSMo, provides that licenses shall be issued only to persons of good moral character who bear a good reputation for honesty, integrity, and fair dealing and who are competent to transact the business of a real estate salesperson in a manner so as to safeguard the public's interest. Hoskins has engaged in conduct and has pleaded guilty to crimes that adversely affect his moral character, his reputation, and his fitness and qualifications to practice as a real estate salesperson.

19. As an alternative to refusing to issue a license, the MREC may, at its discretion, issue a license subject to probation, pursuant to § 324.038.1, RSMo, which provides:

Whenever a board within or assigned to the division of professional registration, including the division itself when so empowered, may refuse to issue a license for reasons which also serve as a basis for filing a complaint with the administrative hearing commission seeking disciplinary action against a holder of license, the board, as an alternative to refusing to issue a license, may at its discretion, issue to an applicant a license subject to probation.

20. The MREC issues this Order in lieu of denial of Hoskins' application for a real estate salesperson license. The MREC has determined that this Order is necessary to ensure the protection of the public.

The period of probation shall constitute the "disciplinary period."
23. Terms and conditions of the disciplinary period. Terms and conditions of the disciplinary period are as follows:

Alternatively, without violating the terms and conditions of this Probated License Order, Hoskins may surrender his real estate license by submitting a letter to the MREC. If Hoskins applies for a real estate license after surrender, Hoskins shall be required to requalify as if an original applicant and the MREC will not be precluded from basing its decision, wholly or partially, on the findings of fact, conclusions of law, and discipline set forth in this Probated License Order.

24. Upon the expiration and successful completion of the disciplinary period, Hoskins' real estate salesperson license shall be fully restored if all other requirements of the law have been satisfied; provided, however, that in the event the MREC determines that Hoskins has violated any term or condition of this Order, the MREC may, in its discretion, after an evidentiary hearing, vacate and set aside the discipline imposed herein and may suspend, revoke, or otherwise lawfully discipline Hoskins' real estate salesperson license.
25. No order shall be entered by the MREC pursuant to the preceding paragraph of this Order without notice and an opportunity for hearing before the MREC in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 536, RSMo.
26. If the MREC determines that Hoskins has violated a term or condition of this Order, which violation would also be actionable in a proceeding before the Administrative Hearing Commission or the circuit court, the MREC may elect to pursue any lawful remedies or procedures afforded it and is not bound by this Order in its determination of appropriate legal actions concerning such violation.
27. If any alleged violation of this Order occurs during the disciplinary period, the MREC may choose to conduct a hearing before it either during the disciplinary period, or as soon thereafter as a hearing can be held, to determine whether a violation occurred and, if so, may impose further disciplinary action. The MREC has continuing jurisdiction to hold a hearing to determine if a violation of this Order has occurred.

28. The MREC will maintain this Order as an open and public record of the MREC as provided in Chapters 339, 610 and 324, RSMo.
